Dear Ms Matsuda and Mr McLaughlin

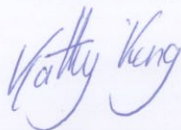

Thank you very much for your fabulous donation of £595.36 to Macmillan Cancer Support, raised from your recent Kendo Charity Event. Please convey our sincere thanks to all the event sponsors, participants and spectators, whose contribution helped achieve this fantastic total. This money will be used to support people living with cancer, making a difference to them when they most need it.

Macmillan relies on voluntary contributions for 97 percent of our funding. It is only donations such as yours that enable Macmillan to provide cancer patients and their families with a range of services to support them on their cancer journey. Here are just a few examples of how your money can help:

- £278 can keep a Macmillan information and support centre stocked for a month
- £184 can pay for a Macmillan nurse for a working day
- £40 can help a cancer support group hold their first meeting
- 10p will make sure one person diagnosed with cancer has a cup of tea when they're feeling vulnerable

Thank you once again for your support and for the difference it will make.

Yours sincerely

Kathy King
